Andre Kampasky, of 53 Greenwich street, was complainant in the Tombs Police Court to-day against a countryman named Michael Gallato, living at 210 East Second street whom he charged with grand larceny. Kampasky recently came to this country from Hungary. Not securing work he decided to return home by one of the White Star steamships last week. Gallatto, whom he en-gaged to take his trunk to the steamship dock, learned from him that he had 208 guilders Austrian money, of the value of 82.46 American money, hidden in a bag worn under his shirt. When they got to the pier Gallatto took Kampasky aside, coolly put his hand under his
